

Instructions: Write a letter to Prophet when he was a boy. Think about everything you learned in class and from the readings about the endurance of the Prophet as a child. Think about the difficult experiences he faced, such as not having a father and then losing his mother. What would you say in your letter to comfort the young boy, especially knowing what he is to become in the future?

