

O You Who Have Come To Us

O you who have come to us truly as a bringer of glad tidings

A savior who guides to the way of righteousness

O you who are the greatest of mankind and lineage

In station, ennobled by Allah

O Messenger of Allah, who posses a luminous brow

O you who have come with the clear proof

Prayers and blessings continue to descend upon him

Like a giving breeze gifted to him

O you who are the greatest of mankind and lineage

In station, ennobled by Allah

O you who are the greatest of mankind and lineage

In station, ennobled by Allah
